Our Service Standards

The Department of Immigration and Emigration is the competent Maldivian Government authority that issues passports to Maldivians. Passport renewal services are, therefore, provided to Maldivian citizens in Malaysia through the coordinated efforts between the Department of Immigration and Emigration, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and the High Commission. The High Commission will make every reasonable effort to fulfil the following service standards.

- o If all requirements for the application are fulfilled, the High Commission will process the application within 15 to 30 minutes of submitting the application to the High Commission in person.
- o If the application is submitted BEFORE 2pm, the High Commission will send the application to the Immigration Department on the same day. For applications submitted AFTER 2pm, the High Commission will send the application the next working day.
- o The High Commission will inform the applicant the same day the High Commission receives the passport from Male'.
- o Estimated service delivery time at present is 5-10 working days. (Service time depends mainly on courier time. International courier from Male' takes about 2-3 working days. Diplomatic mail is normally posted from Male' on Thursdays and arrives KL on Monday)
